2	Once upon a time, there was a little dog called Jip. He was a greedy little dog.
3	Every day, Jip would run across a field, over a bridge, and through some trees, until he came to a shop.	1
4	One morning, a man at the shop gave Jip a bone. It was a big meaty bone. "This is the biggest bone I have ever seen," said Jip to himself. "I will take it home and hide it. No one else can have this bone. It is just for me." So off he went, back through the trees.	1
6	Just as Jip was running through the trees, he heard a noise. "Oh no!" he said. "Someone is coming! This bone belongs fo me. No one else can have it. I will have to run even faster."	1
